Australia vs New Zealand

Ladies Polo International

November 11 & 12, 2006

New Zealand

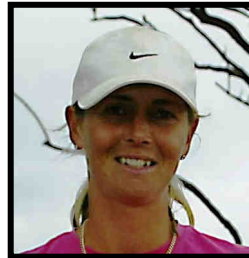

Alexandra (Alex) Jones – 1 goal – Hololio Polo Club, Auckland

Alexandra Jones (Alex) has ridden all her life and has played polo for at least half of it. At 29 she spends her winters working in LA and her summers at home in Auckland playing polo and running the family yard, four players (herself, Dad, brother and family friend from the USA) and 20 ponies. Alex has played in United Kingdom, Australia and Hawaii.

Kirsty Watson – 1 goal – Cambridge Polo Club, Waikato

Kirsty is 32 years old and has been playing polo since she was 12. She has played all round the world including America, U.K, Australia and just recently South Africa. Kirsty comes from a renowned NZ Polo family with her father representing New Zealand for at least 20 years and her brother James also a NZ representative. She enjoys making young ponies in the off season. Her other interests include, playing netball, fashion, and spending time with her fiancé.

Emma Calder – 1 goal – Amuri Polo Club, South Island (Captain)

Emma has ridden for most of her life and plays polo each winter in South Africa. She has also played polo in Hawaii, Australia and the USA. Emma lives on the family farm near Culverden in the South Island. She makes her own ponies and her mare Christen won Champion Pony at the NZ Women's Open Polo Challenge in 2006. Emma will shortly start training to be an AI technician.

Amanda Harrison – 1 goal – Hololio Polo Club, Auckland

Amanda has ridden all of her life, and has played polo for many years. She has worked, and played both arena and grass polo in Australia, and her daughter Kelly now lives there. She spends her winters playing polo professionally in Hawaii, and plays for the Hololio Club in Auckland during the summer. Amanda runs her own farm, making polo ponies and is an artist whose works sells internationally.

Australia

Julie McIntosh—0 goal—Windsor Polo Club, NSW, Australia

Julie started playing polo in her early 30s after a brief affair with polocross in Zambia. Since then she has polo in and around NSW as well as Singapore, Dubai, Tanzania, Kenya & most recently in the Ladies International in South Africa. Julie sits the NSWPA board and actively promotes Ladies Polo in Australia. Away from polo, Julie run a safari business specialising in Africa & India.

Tricia Hall – 0 goal – Moondyne Polo Club, Bullsbrook, Western Australia

Tricia has been riding since a child coming from a polocrosse background. She has been playing polo since 1993, along with her whole family who founded the Moondyne Polo Club in 1996. Apart from playing in WA, Tricia has played in the 15 goal in Garangula, the twelve goal in Kooralbyn, and for Geebung in England and Spain. Tricia lives on a farm north of Perth with her husband and two daughters where they breed and train polo and polocrosse ponies, and run a few cattle.

Jacqueline Hooper - 0 goal - Millamolong Polo Club, NSW (Captain)

Jacqueline comes from a polo playing family based out of their club in Hampshire, England. She won the Hurlingham Polo Association Scholarship enabling her to play in Australia and the US and has since then represented England in Australia, the US and Ireland. While at Oxford University she earned an Extraordinary Full Blue as captain for polo. Most recently, she captained the Australian team in a tri-nations tournament in Iran. Away from the polo field Jacqueline spends her time practising as an intellectual property and technology lawyer in Sydney.

Katie Edmeades — 1 goal— Victoria

Katie, comes from a racing family in the UK and now lives with her Australian partner Ed in Victoria. They spend the year traveling the Eastern seaboard playing polo and developing the young horses for the Matties family. Katie has spent her time grooming and has gradually moved through various levels of management in the sport of polo, choosing to spend her time with young horses. This is the first time Katie has played for Australia.
