Dear Polo Fans,

International Polo Test - Australia vs Chile – The Chukka Club
15 April, 2007

In 2007, The Chukka Club, the official hospitality lounge, is being introduced at the Goldman Sachs JBWere Annual International Polo Test.

We are encouraging all of you to support this initiative by joining the celebrations in the marquee – it is where the party will be! See the attached invitation for details on how to book.

The marquee will include, live Latino music, along with good food and an array of fabulous auction items – holidays to Chile & Argentina, flights to South America, race horses, jewellery, and more!

Please circulate this to all your friends, family and work colleagues and assist us in making the day a success. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

All the best,

The Test Match Crew
