COUNTESS OF DUDLEY CUP RULES

Purpose of Tournament: New South Wales Polo Association Club Championships

Team Goal Limit

In 2012 the Dudley Cup will be played as an open tournament on handicap.

Structure

To be played over 3 days.

Depending on the number of teams nominated the tournament committee will determine how the preliminary games will be played and how the draw will take place.

Player Goal Limit

Nil

Team & Player Eligibility

- 1) Club teams from registered NSW Polo Clubs:
 - 1a) A player must have played for the Club at least TWO tournaments during the previous twelve months
 - 1b) In 2012, Clubs may nominate one marque player who may be registered interstate or overseas and a minimum of 6 goals handicap. This player must be registered with the Club on at least a 4 weekend membership and must have played at least one tournament with that club in the previous 12 months.
- 2) Registered Club teams from other Australian States must qualify under their base State's registration and handicapping rules and must also be approved by the NSWPA.

Exemptions

Exemptions will only be given to a genuine club member who has not played enough games due to;

- i) injury
- ii) not having played polo in Australia (ie a genuine club member who has been overseas or who is having a short season).
- iii) being a new player to the game of polo

Qualifying tournaments

- i) A tournament must be listed on a State Polo Calendar or must be a tournament sanctioned by the NSWPA.
- ii) Each of the two tournaments must be played at different clubs, ie two weekends at one club only equals one tournament
- iii) NSWPA tournaments and tournaments held by Clubs, other than their annual tournaments will count provided the team play as a genuine club team with the other three players being registered members of the Club.
- iv) If a team is entered in a tournament and that tournament is cancelled, it will count as a tournament.

Draw

The draw will be done at the Test Match and each team representative will draw a number, which will decide which game that team plays in. No seeding.

Ponies

No restrictions on the number or ownership. Ponies played by a competing team will not be allowed to play for any other team during the tournament except with the permission of the Tournament Committee.

Nomination

Each team to pay $1000 to NSWPA by Friday 16th March 2012.

Spectator Entry

To be $15 per person (children under 16 free). No charge for cars. Bus passengers pay $10 per person. Free entry for NSWPA Life, Kyeemagh & Annual members carrying 2012 orange membership shields.
